Day 3 - January 24

Part III: Explanation of Great Recessions

09.00-09.30 "Understanding financial instability: Minsky versus the Austrians", Ludwig van den Hauwe, Bruxelles (Belgium)
Discutant: Alejandro Agafonow

09.30-10.00 "Toward a European « Poor Friendly » Austerity Economic Policy", Alejandro Agafonow, ESSCA School of Management (France).
Discutant: Ludwig van den Hauwe

10.00-10.30 "Monetary Policy and the 2008 Financial Crisis Identifying Keynesian and Austrian Economics within the Mainstream", Patrick Mardini, University of Balamand (Lebanon)
Discutant: Ezra Davar

Coffee Break

10.45-11.15 "The US economic policies against the Great Recession of 2008: A Critical assessment by the contemporary Austrian School", Renaud Fillieule, Université de Lille (France)
Discutant: Nicholas Snowden

Conclusion
Bernard Vallageas
François Facchini

Information
Sonia Suihli
colloques.jean-monnet@u-psud.fr
33(0)1 40 91 17 96

Registration
Free but compulsory before January 17, 2015
https://rech.jm.u-psud.fr/colloque/colloque.php?evt=69

Adresse
Faculté Jean Monnet
54 boulevard Desgranges
92330 Sceaux

RER B: arrêt Robinson
Bus: 128, 179, 194, 195, 294, 390, 395, 595
Day 1 - January 22

Welcome words
Bernard Vallageas
François Facchini

14.00-15.00 "The Neglected Importance of the Austrian Thought in Public Economics", Pascal Salin, Université Paris Dauphine (France). Discutant : John Smithin

15.00-15.30 "Hayek’s Critique of the General Theory: A New View of the Debate between Hayek and Keynes", David Sanz, Catholic University of Avila, (Spain) Discutant : Arie Arnon

15.30-16.00 "A Re-Examination of Hayek’s Disputes and Agreements with Keynes on "Interventions" in the Economy: 1924 to 1946 versus the 1970’s 121", Arie Arnon, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Beer-Sheva, (Israel) Discutant : David Sanz

Coffee break

16.15-16.45 "Hayek, Keynes and the paradigm of complexity ", Pierre Garello, Université d’Aix-Marseille (France) Discutant : Noémi Lévy

16.45-17.15 "Ludwig M. Lachmann against the Cambridge School. Macroeconomics, Microfoundations, Expectations, Rate of Profit, Equilibrium and Innovations ", Carmelo Ferlito, Visiting Professor, INTI International College Subang, Subang Jaya, (Malaysia) Discutant : Pierre Garello

17.15-17.45 "Hicks on Hayek, Keynes, and Wicksell", John Smithin, Department of Economics and the Schulich, School of Business, York University, Toronto (Canada) Discutant : Guido Hüslmann

Day 2 - January 23

10.00-10.30 « La polémique Sraffa–Hayek et l’origine du chapitre 17 de la Théorie générale », Sergio Rossi, Université de Fribourg (Suisse) Discutant : François Facchini

Coffee Break

10.45-11.15 "Hayek and Keynes on Say’s law", Massimo Cingolani, European Bank of Investment (Luxemburg) Discutant : Pascal Salin

Part I History of Economic Thought : Hayek versus Keynes

11.15-11.45 "The Multiplier Actually is a Diminisher – Some Remarks on the IS-Logic", Eduard Braun, University of Technology Clausthal (Germany) Discutant : Bernard Vallageas

11.45-12.15 "Austrian views of the Great Recession: a Kaldorian dissent", Nicholas Snowden, Lancaster University Management School (United Kingdom) Discutant : Renaud Fillieule

12.15-12.45 "The 21st century scandal must be prevented : Keynes vs Hazlitt", Ezra Davar, Independant Researcher Discutant : Massimo Cingolani

Lunch

14.00-14.30 "Dissolving “the unholy marriage” : Hayek’s recommendation on monetary and fiscal policy", Maria Alejandra Caporale Madi, Steinbes University (Berlin) Discutant : Marlyse Pouchol

14.30-15.00 "The Phillips Curve : a reassessment", François Facchini, Université Paris-Sud (France), Discutant : Sergio Rossi

15.00-15.30 "The equality of investment and savings : Hayekian loanable funds versus Keynesian accounting", Bernard Vallageas, Université Paris-Sud (France) Discutant : Patrick Mardini

Coffee Break

15.45-16.15 "The cultural consequences of expansionist monetary policy", Guido Hüslmann, Université d’Angers (France). Discutant : John Smithin