Présentation

Objectives

The objective of this curriculum is to produce generalist managers who have a global and transversal approach to the enterprise. The program helps students acquire knowledge and business practices in the following three areas:Overall management (strategy, change management, technology, project management...) and international management.Quality management (certification, tools, audits...).Purchasing (purchasing strategy, sourcing, negotiation, supplier audits...).This curriculum is designed as a block release training program (apprenticeship contract). During their studies, the students perform a one or two-year mission, in purchasing management, supplier relationship management and purchasing quality. Through this mission they can acquire real experience, which will help them enter the professional world after their studies. The program is organized as follows: one week of classes and two weeks on the job.This curriculum prepares students for the following jobs and positions:
• Vendor quality assurance manager,

• Supplier relationship manager
• Auditor
• Sourcing manager
• Supply chain manager
• Purchasing
• Project manager
• Purchasing consultant
• etc.

Target Audience and Entry Requirements

The programme is open to students who have the necessary prerequisites in management and business management. It is aimed at students who have completed a Master 1 in management, business, commerce, economic and social administration, etc. The training is also intended for students who already hold a Master 2 (scientific, legal, technological, etc.) and who wish to acquire additional training in purchasing. As the programme is a work-study placement, it also requires some form of prior experience in a company (in the form of an internship or work-study assignment) as well as the ability to follow academic studies while doing an apprenticeship.
